AMENDMENT CONCERNING SEQUENCE LISTING

This Amendment is submitted in connection with the above-identified §371 national stage application, which was filed with a paper copy of the Sequence Listing but without a computer readable form of the Sequence Listing. The United States Patent and Trademark Office has not yet issued a Notification of Missing Requirements Under 35 U.S.C. 371 in the United States Designated/Elected Office (DO/EO/US) in connection with the above-identified §371 national stage application, and, pursuant to an April 12, 2006 telephone conversation between Mr. Joshua Whitehill of my office and Mr. Terrence Till of the PCT Help Desk in which Mr. Till advised Mr. Whitehill that, if an applicant initially filed an application without a computer readable form of the Sequence Listing, the applicant may file a computer readable form of the Sequence Listing without having yet received a Notice of Missing Requirements, this Amendment is being timely filed.

Please amend the subject application as follows:

Applicants: Stan Gronthos and Andrew Zannettino
U.S. Serial No.: 10/551,326
Filed: as §371 national stage of PCT
International Application No. PCT/AU2004/000417
